

CONFERENCE INFORMATION

Date: May 2nd–5th, 2009

Place: Omni Shoreham Hotel
2500 Calvert St, NW
Washington, DC 20008

CFC #: 56324

For More Info:

info@nueva-vida.org
202-223-9100

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

Join HUNDREDS of participants to:

- Become a better advocate
- Hear the latest news in cancer science, research and news
- Attend thought-provoking sessions delivered by well-known researchers, scientists, advocates, and policy makers
- Participate in workshops offering scientific information and practical skills for advocates
- Have FUN!!!!

** NV scholarship recipients will attend conference activities with NV's bilingual team leaders **

Join other Latina Breast Cancer advocates at the annual National Breast Cancer Coalition (NBCC) Advocacy Training Conference

NUEVA VIDA IS OFFERING 15 SCHOLARSHIPS (Scholarship Deadline: March 2, 2009)

WHO IS ENCOURAGED TO APPLY?

- Survivors actively involved in the Latino Community
- Individuals with a commitment to breast cancer advocacy (within the Latino population)
- Those with recognized leadership in the Latino community
- Anyone with a direct work relationship to the Latino population

Scholarships Available

- Conference Tuition
- Conference Tuition + Annual Membership Fee
- Conference Tuition + Lodging expenses

Eligibility Criteria

- Demonstrate a commitment to the cause in a 100-word essay
- Explain Financial Circumstances in a 50-70 word essay
- NBCC membership is required by NBCC ($35 fee). Nueva Vida will consider providing support for this fee only if the candidate is a survivor AND demonstrates a great financial need.
- All applicants are required to submit the Nueva Vida Scholarship form
- All lodging scholarship applicants are required to fill out an NBCC scholarship form (available at: www.stopbreastcancer.org) in addition to NV's application form.

For complete application requirements and to request an NV Scholarship Application please contact Carolina Ruiz at info@nueva-vida.org or 202.223.9100

*Lodging scholarships are only available if residence is more than 12 miles from venue